

Office of the Chancellor

April 22, 2010

Dr. Ted R. Knous
Associate Vice Chancellor for Research
5211 Rockhill Road
Campus Mail

Dear Dr. Knous:

In accordance with Section 320.030 of the Collected Rules and Regulations of the University of Missouri, I hereby authorize you to execute all contracts, other instruments and agreements on behalf of the Curators of the University of Missouri, except those specifically excluded by the Collected Rules and Regulations, all of which were furnished to you earlier, pertaining to:

The University of Missouri outside sponsored research, teaching and training, development, and demonstration grant and contract programs for such items as, but not limited to: proposals, acceptance of grants and contracts and amendments thereby, assurances and certifications, invention reports and any other documents and instruments necessary to perform your functions, duties and responsibilities as required in this area.

This delegation of authority covers all currently authorized personnel, supersedes previous delegations, and will be in effect until otherwise notified.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Leo Morton", is written over a blue circular stamp.

Leo Morton
Chancellor
